Frightful Wreck This Morning in Kansas Upon Heels of
B. & O. Disaster Near Washington--Rock Island
Head on Collision--Fast Passenger Wrecked.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, Jan. 2.—Passenger train No. 29, west bound, and No. 30, east bound, on the Rock Island collided between Volland and Alta Vista this morning and according to G. W. Rourke, superintendent of the Kansas division, in his report to headquarters here, thirty persons were killed and forty were injured. Ten bodies have been recovered from the smoker of No. 29, nine of whom are Mexicans.

The smoker seemed to suffer the most. It was loaded with Mexican laborers. The baggage car raised the smoker and lodged on the smoker's occupants, crushing them. The baggage car, two chair cars and one tourist sleeper of No. 29 were burned. The rescue work is now being carried on. Both trains are known as the California and Mexico fast mail, going in opposite directions. Train 29 left Chicago Tuesday morning enroute to El Paso. No. 30 was due in Chicago at 10:35 tonight.

John Lynes, telegraph operator at Volland, has disappeared. Orders had been issued for trains No. 29 and 30 to pass at Volland. It is stated that the operator failed to deliver the order to the crew of No. 29.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—From reports received in Chicago more than thirty persons are believed to have been killed and scores injured in the head-on collision of two Chicago passenger trains on the Rock Island railroad near Alta Vista, Kansas, today.

B. & O. Wreck at Washington.
Operator's Testimony.

The body of Mrs. Oliver P. Dailey who was killed in the frightful B. & O. wreck Sunday near Washington, D. C., arrived here at 7:40 Wednesday morning accompanied by her brother, Mr. Alfred Lee, of Granville. The body was taken to the Long & McCament morgue after which it was removed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee of near Chatham, where the funeral took place at 2 o'clock at the Baptist church, Elder Potter of Fallsburg, officiating. Burial was in the Evans cemetery.

By request of Elder Dailey's father, Mr. Dailey's body was sent to Indianapolis, but the remains of the little child, Thelma Dailey, was sent to West Virginia to be buried by the side of her mother, Mrs. Dailey's first wife.

Mrs. Dailey leaves the following relatives: The father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee of Chatham, one brother, Alfred of Granville, two sisters, Pearl and Myrtle, of Chatham, and one little daughter, Mary, aged 8 years who was left with the grandparents. In Indianapolis Mr. Dailey has a father and mother living. They are Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dailey. There are also three sisters, Clara, Alice and Iva of Virginia, and five brothers, John, Harvey, Earl, Lemuel and Willie.

The wreck occurring as it did on the eve of the new year, was one of the most disastrous which has occurred in the country for many years, resulting in the death of 53 passengers and the injury of 80, many of whom may not recover. The accident was said to be caused by dense fog and mistaken orders, the trouble being due to an extra train of empty immigrant coaches.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Coroner Nevitt today began an inquest to ascertain the responsibility for the disastrous wreck on the B. & O. Sunday evening at Terra Cotta. Many witnesses were called, and the taking of testimony continued throughout the day.

debrand saw the signal. I have been in the service of the company for 31 years, and that night was the foggiest and worst for trainmen I have seen in my career."

The interstate commerce commission investigation of the wreck will begin Friday.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—Department store drivers were the principal witnesses at the trial of Cornelius P. Shea and others. The defense sought to prove by these witnesses that the department store drivers had not gone on a strike, but that they had been locked out. A number of others also testified that they had been locked out by their employers.

MAGOON RECEPTION HELD IN HAVANA

Havana, Jan. 2.—Governor Magoon held his New Year reception in the red room of the palace. Senor Gaytan de Ayala, the Spanish minister, and dean of the diplomatic corps, addressing Mr. Magoon as the representative of the Cuban republic, extended the sincere congratulations of the corps and expressed their earnest wishes for speedy and complete re-establishment of the normal political status of Cuba on the basis of the restoration of Cuban independence. The Spanish minister extended to Governor Magoon personally the earnest wishes of his colleagues for his complete success in the noble and arduous task in which he is engaged. Governor Magoon expressed his profound gratitude at these assurances of friendship.

SON IS ARRESTED AFTER FATHER'S DEATH

Boston, Jan. 2.—A fracture of the skull caused the death of William Hartnett, the well known labor man, who was found dead at his home here under suspicious circumstances. His son, William J. Hartnett, was taken into custody. Dr. MacDonald, who held the autopsy, suggested that the wounds could have been inflicted by a blow from a fist with a ring or brass knuckles. The wounds include a deep cut over the left eye and a fractured nose. The younger Hartnett is a walking delegate for the masons' assistants' union. He claims his father's death was undoubtedly the result of a fall.

Albany, Jan. 2.—Consternation was caused in both political parties among the legislative representatives of the municipal and state corporations today when Governor Hughes in a message to the legislature urged reforms of a radical nature to correct the present corporation abuses. The message was short and to the point. Governor Hughes insists that the legislature make immediate provision for a recount of the votes cast for mayor in New York in 1905 and recommends that legislation be adopted limiting the amount candidates may expend to secure election.

INSANITY TO BE THAW'S DEFENSE

New York, Jan. 2.—Dr. Charles L. Dana, the noted alienist, who examined Harry K. Thaw after he killed Stanford White, announced today that Thaw was undoubtedly insane. The fact that Dr. Allen McLean Hamilton stated that Thaw is insane and has been so for years, and that Dr. Dana agrees with him, makes it evident the defense foresees for killing the architect will be insanity.

WHERE THREE NEWARK PEOPLE AND FIFTY OTHERS PERISHED IN FRIGHTFUL RAILWAY WRECK SUNDAY

This is a diagram of the B. & O. train wreck at Terra Cotta station, near Washington, D. C., where 53 lives were snuffed out and 80 people injured last Sunday evening. Among the killed were three Newark people, Elder Oliver Dailey, wife and child. So complete was the wreckage of the cars that the debris was burned during the night. Fragments of bodies were scattered along the track for a distance of half a mile.

YOUNG MOTHER LEAVES DETROIT HOSPITAL WARD

AND WANDERS THROUGH ICY STREETS BAREFOOTED IN NIGHT DRESS.

FORMERLY LIVED IN NEWARK

Sought Refuge in Kitchen of Strange Family Where She Was Found Unconscious.

Mrs. Burt Flickinger, nee Olive Trovinger, formerly of Newark, and the daughter of the well known Fifth street barber, is seriously ill at her Detroit, Mich., home as a result of a terrible exposure to the cold and icy streets Friday night, December 29. Mrs. Flickinger, who has been confined to the Red Cross Hospital from the effects of an operation, while temporarily deranged, escaped from the attendants and wandered several blocks until by mere accident she found refuge in the cold kitchen of a family living several blocks from the hospital.

Thomas Trovinger the father who was called to Detroit by his daughter's illness, returned home Tuesday. He states that the young mother is slowly mending and her relatives hope that she will soon recover her former good health.

The Detroit Press in speaking of the affair says:

Mrs. Burt Flickinger of 373 Fort street, East, dangerously ill and laboring under a delusion that the hospital attendants were about to injure her, escaped from the Red Cross hospital Friday night and wandered about the icy streets in her bare feet, clad only in a flannel night dress. She walked to the home of Robert Slater, 648 Fort street, where she succeeded in gaining an entrance to the kitchen through the door which had been left unlocked by Mr. Slater when he retired at night. She was found the next morning, nude and under the kitchen sink, unconscious from exposure and with but a spark of life left in her frail body.

Two months ago a baby came to the little home. Her advent nearly cost the life of the young mother. She rallied by her suffering led to a slight mental derangement.

She suffered from strange fears continually she thought some one was trying to harm her. She would hide in closets in her home and talk strangely of people strange to her husband.

On December 19, she wandered from her home bareheaded, clad only in a thin dress and wearing a light coat, to a grocery store where she ordered a quantity of goods but did not have the money to pay for them. She took the goods and attempted to drive away in a delivery wagon which stood in front of the store. She was restrained and the police notified. Her identity and her condition was soon learned and she was taken to her home.

Dr. James R. Adams, who had attended her, then decided that she should be taken to a hospital which was done December 22. She underwent a slight operation which increased her fears that she was to be done bodily harm. She begged her husband to take her home and she could hardly be restrained from leaving the ward where she was being cared for.

At midnight on the night of her escape, while the nurse was absent for a moment from the ward, she arose and escaped from the building. The male attendants were notified and a fruitless search was instituted for the remainder of the night. It was not until Saturday morning at 4 o'clock that Robert Slater arose to make a fire in the kitchen that the poor woman was discovered. Mr. Slater was startled to find the woman lying under the sink in the cold kitchen, lying with her arm for a pillow, in an unconscious condition. He aroused his wife and other people living in the house and she was hurriedly placed in a bed and stimulants administered which soon restored her to consciousness.

As soon as she recovered her reason, she readily told her name and how she came to be under the sink. The hospital officials were notified and the distressed husband soon arrived at the Slater home where he was overjoyed to find his wife alive. She pleaded piteously however and it was decided not to return her to the hospital so she was removed to her home.

At the hospital, it was stated that only her demented condition saved her from death from the terrible exposure. A person in normal condition mentally and physically could not have gone through the exposure without serious results.

How she found the Slater home with the kitchen door unlocked is one of those strange manifestations of a guiding destiny which defy explanation. Burt Flickinger, her husband, was on a verge of collapse when he learned of the suffering of his wife. "It seems as though she suffered enough when the baby came," he said, "so that we might have a little chance now. It was terrible to think of her weakened as she was by illness, wandering about the streets in her bare feet clad only in her ordinary night gown."

The baby boy, a lusty youth, is doing fine and has been taken to its mother. Her physicians believe now that she will recover.

Mr. Flickinger, the husband, is well known in Newark. He was for three years a molder employed at the Wehrle foundry. He has been living in Detroit for a little more than a year. They were married in Newark 18 months ago.

Mr. Trovinger, the girl's father, went to Detroit some ten days ago, being called there by the illness of his daughter. He stated to the Advocate Wednesday morning that as soon as the daughter was able to travel, she would be brought to Newark. It seems that her trouble is homesickness as much as anything else.

POOR HEALTH CAUSES SUICIDE OF E. MCLELLAND

FORMER NEWARK MAN ENDS HIS LIFE WITH RAZOR AT DECATUR, ILL.

BURIAL HERE ON THURSDAY

Letter Written Home to Mother on December 23, Told of Man's Pitiable Condition.

An Advocate bulletin from Decatur, Ill., Tuesday night, brought the sad and shocking news of the suicide of Elmer E. McClelland, son of the late J. F. McClelland, a former resident of Newark.

Mr. McClelland, whose widowed mother resides at 34 Clinton street, this city, had been located in Decatur for the past 20 years, where he was employed as freight rate inspector for the Illinois Central and the Washash railroads. It is believed that his suicide was due to temporary insanity, caused by extreme and prolonged suffering from vertigo, in turn resulted in insomnia.

On December 23, Mr. McClelland wrote a long letter to his mother in which he referred to his physical condition, saying that he would be so thankful for health once again. In one place in the letter he said: "I have at times, recently, been almost irresponsible." He told his mother that he was so nervous from loss of sleep and suffering from vertigo and severe sick headaches for the past two years that he could scarcely attend to his duties. The letter was written, however, in a perfectly rational manner and showed no signs of the writer's condition.

The unfortunate man was last in this city one year ago last July. Previous to that time he had made it a custom to come home nearly every year, but could not do so this year on account of his health. J. F. McClelland, father of the deceased, died here five years ago. The son was here at that time and once later.

Mr. McClelland was 51 years of age. Previous to his going to the west he was employed for a number of years as a Pullman conductor on the Pennsylvania with Newark as his headquarters. He was divorced from his wife several years ago but this fact is said to have no connection with the sudden death. He leaves his mother, and one brother, Orris who with his wife, resides two miles east of the city in Madison town.

The Rev. L. S. Boyce, the family's pastor, is looking after the funeral arrangements and has ordered the body shipped here, where it is expected to arrive at a late hour Wednesday night over the Pennsylvania road. The funeral will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Boyce at the house Thursday at 1:30. The body will be buried in Cedar Hill cemetery.

The following message from Decatur gives the details of the suicide: Decatur, Ill., Jan. 2.—Elmer E. McClelland, a joint railroad inspector and the son of the late J. F. McClelland of Newark, O., committed suicide Tuesday by cutting his throat with two razors.

The tragedy was discovered during the ineffectual attempts of the mail carrier, with New Year's greetings from McClelland's mother and sister, to get an answer to repeated knocks on the door. McClelland died shortly after being found.

It is believed by friends here that McClelland became insane within the last few days, as they noticed he was worrying a great deal without apparent cause.

McClelland was a prominent member of the Masonic and Elk lodges here.

During this period six governments have succeeded each other in Hungary.

BIG CROWD SAW RYAN GUINEA RACE

The guinea race, given by Mr. J. F. Ryan of the Union Market company, on the northeast corner of the public square, on Tuesday afternoon, was a big success and far surpassed the expectations of the promoters. Over 2,000 people viewed or took part in the exciting chase. The judges of the race were Chas. Kuntz, John Kain, W. H. Bolin, Starter, Homer Johnson; referee, J. H. McClure. The first guinea lot loose was caught by John Stevens, the second one by Fred Lautenschlager, and the third by Andrew Murphy. The large crowd was ably handled with the assistance of Officers Robert Zergel and Patrick Carroll.

The drawing for prizes was conducted under the direction of W. H. Bolin, Zanesville, Judge; J. A. Berry, judge; William Bolton, reading clerk; Robert Armstrong, secretary, and Homer Johnson, secretary. The following numbers drew largest prizes: No. 527, 50 pound can of lard; No. 625, 20 pound can of lard; No. 530, 5 pound can of lard; 1449, 3 pound can of lard; 666, fresh ham; 1202, two fresh shoulders; 1107, pork loin; 902, 10 pounds rib roast; 465, 10 pounds chuck roast; 1445, 5 pounds round steak; 698, 5 pounds sirloin steak; 827, 5 pounds porter house steak; 155, 10 pound plate of beef; 941, 647, 1455, 359 and 303, each drew one California ham; 1304, 5 pounds of bacon; 1166, Swift ham; 1394, 5 pounds bologna; 1051, 2 pounds Frankfurts; 1072, pork sausage; 650, can syrup; 497, brick cheese; 511, 2 pounds butterine; 29, 1 pound butter; 1170, 5 pounds sardine; 400 bars Swift's Hotel Soap to other numbers. ## MONOMOY PLACE

Palatial Home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, Scene of Joyous New Year Festivities.

Granville, Jan. 2—"Monomoy Place" the palatial residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, was the scene of joyous New Year festivities Tuesday, when the genial host and hostess threw open their doors to their friends in the good old fashioned way. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and carnations and the handsome dining room, baronial in proportions, was a harmony in red. The large round table was decorated with smilax depending from the chandelier gorgeous with poinsettias and stars of crimson immortelles. The "den" received the greatest amount of attention it being properly the most handsome room in the house. It is a sumptuous apartment where the expenditure of money and exquisite taste have given the very acme of comfort and elegance. There were many callers, but no where a crowd, though the ladies who presided in the dining room were kept busy dispensing the bountiful hospitality. Mr. B. I. Jones at the buffet carved turkey, duck and ham, with exceeding deftness. Mrs. A. K. Follett and Miss Stella Case presided at the coffee urn. Mrs. Charles Robinson at the oyster dish. Mrs. B. I. Jones and Mrs. Burton Case poured chocolate, while the servants of the house passed sandwiches, relishes and confections with untiring zeal.

At seven o'clock dinner was served covers being laid for eighteen—the assistant hostesses with their husbands and a few out of town guests.

Mr. Jones is a genial and delightful host, whose chief delight seems to consist in making people happy, while his wife, handsome and cultured, is a charming helpmeet and an ideal hostess. At a late hour the party broke up with hearty wishes to host and hostess. No personal invitations were issued.

Mr. John Manuel of Cleveland, nephew of Mr. Jones, is a guest at "Monomoy Place", for a few days.

Business Rooms.
There is a big demand for proper business facilities in the central part of the city, so the real estate men say, and the lack of such facilities is keeping many good business propositions away which would come from other cities and locate here if there were more modern rooms in which to do business.

Not All on the Square.
Since the rentals for business properties around the square are higher than last year, there is a tendency to scatter the business interests over the city. There are lots of good stores all over Newark, and they will increase, too, if the landlords who own the property around the square do not "spruce" their properties up, or give some other inducements to their present tenants.

Congregational Meeting.
The annual congregational business meeting and social of the Central Church of Christ, will be held this evening at 7:30. The meeting will be opened with a musical program followed by a business session, after which the young people will entertain in the church parlors. All members and all friends interested in the work of the congregation, are invited and expected to be present.

Family Reunion.
Mr. Fred Brown of Chicago, Ill., formerly of Newark, spent Christmas with his parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown of Buckingham street. It was the first time in six years that the family was together. Among the sisters and brothers, who were seated at the Christmas dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Swartz and two daughters, Lillian and Esther Elizabeth, Mr. Fred Brown, Jr. and Mrs. J. F. Millay of Columbus, Mr. Amos Brown of Mt. Vernon and Marie, Helen and Lulu Brown of Newark.

Owen Stevens Hurt.
Mr. Owen Stevens was the victim of an accident Tuesday afternoon on East Main street which came near resulting more seriously than it did. As it was, Mr. Stevens sustained a fracture of the knee cap and will be confined to his home for some time. Mr. Stevens was driving on Main street when his horse took fright at an automobile and started to run away. Mr. Stevens was thrown out and struck his knee against a telegraph pole, fracturing the knee cap. He was carried into the office of Dr. D. H. Miller Sr., where the injury received attention.

WEDDINGS.

LEWIS-MCKIM.

The wedding of Mr. Chester A. Lewis, a popular fireman of the B. & O. and Miss Ferra L. McKim, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Eliza McKim took place at 7 o'clock New Year's night at the home of the bride's mother. The bride was gown in Alice blue silk. Rev. Mr. Locke performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate friends and relatives. The wedding march was played by Miss Eliza Hoover. A sumptuous dinner was served at 8 o'clock. They will make their home with the bride's mother at 20 Sherwood avenue.

MCKIM-LAMPMAN.

The wedding of Mr. Charles R. Lampman of Columbus, formerly of Woodstock, Canada, and Miss May C. McKim of Newark, daughter of Mrs. Eliza McKim, took place Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Columbus, O., Rev. C. E. Byrre officiating.

The bride wore a pretty gown of pale blue mousseline and carried lilies of the valley. She was attended by Mrs. Estelle Taylor.

After January 15 Mr. and Mrs. Lampman will be at home to their friends at 602 East Rich street, Columbus.

DAVIS-SMITH.
Granville, Jan. 2.—Mr. Jay U. Davis, son of Mr. J. D. Davis, at present holding a position as guard at the Ohio Penitentiary, and Miss Mabel Smith, the charming daughter of Mr. Solomon Smith, a prominent farmer of Granville township, were married Wednesday afternoon, shortly after noon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. C. Sparks of Newark, in the presence only of a few of the intimate friends. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Davis left for Columbus where they will live. The announcement of the marriage of Mr. Davis and Miss Smith will be received with great surprise and pleasure by their many friends.

Mrs. Bowser's Sad Birthday

She Tells How Mr. B. Commemorated It by Strangely Disappearing.

AWAITS RETURN HOME

Issues a True Statement of Facts Leading Up to His Dropping Out of Sight.

[Copyright, 1936, by P. C. Eastment.]
S Mrs. Bowser has been missing from home for the last two days and as I wish to satisfy the public that I am not to blame if the worst has happened, I hereby append a true statement of the facts leading up to his disappearance. Having had many previous and disappointing experiences, I had resolved not to say anything regarding my birthday this year. As the days passed and the event drew near Mr. Bowser did not refer to it in any manner, and up to the evening of the very day I fondly imagined that he had forgotten all about it.

He had deceived me, however. He had been keeping track of the time and making ready to commemorate the day in a fitting manner. Mr. Bowser is silent when he has nothing to say. We had had dinner and were seated for the evening, he with his cigar and

"I WAS GOING BY A SECONDHAND STORE," newspaper, and I with my book, with the family cat purring in contentment on the rug, when he turned to me and asked:

"Mrs. Bowser, do you know what day this is?"

I replied that I did, and he continued:

"The wheel of time has rolled around and brought you another birthday—the twenty-third since we were married. Perhaps you thought I wasn't taking notice, but I have been making ready for the last three weeks. If it gives you a sad thought to realize that it is one year older, let me offset it by saying that you are looking five years younger than last year."

It was a nice little speech, and I appreciated it. As my eyes filled with tears he reached across the table for my hand and continued:

"We have been together for a long time, my dear, and on this occasion I want to say that I fully appreciate all you have done for me as a helpmate. I could not have married a better woman had I searched the whole world over. There have been times when I have criticized and found fault and rendered myself very disagreeable, but you must forgive me. I am far from perfect, but will make a big effort to improve."

That was nice, too, and there were more tears in my eyes as I told him he was one husband in a million and that if things had not always gone smoothly I was as much to blame as he was. There was moisture in his own eyes as he held my hand and hoped that every returning birthday would find me in as happy spirits and looking as young and handsome. I treasured his words, and at the same time I hoped he would stop there. He seemed to halt between two opinions for a moment and then said:

"I do not remember that I have ever let one of your birthdays pass without making you a little present to commemorate it, and this occasion will be no exception. I could have gone to the jeweler's and bought some gewgaw, but you know how practical I am."

"But I hope you didn't buy anything more than a pair of gloves," I said. "You would have appreciated them, but it would have been a cheap way out of it for me."

"Just gloves and stockings, then," Mr. Bowser smiled and looked knowing and went upstairs and returned after five minutes with a bundle. He had smuggled it into the house without my knowledge and succeeded in keeping it safely hidden. My heart felt like lead. That bundle surely contained clothing of some sort.

"A little bundle," he said as he pointed to it—"a few things for the best little woman in the world. I ran across them about a month ago and didn't let the grass grow under my feet in securing them."

"You dear, good man, but you have got me a set of furs," I said, trying hard to believe in my own words.

"Not quite, dear. You know my opinion of furs is that they are unhealthy. Thousands of women are brought to the grave every winter through wearing furs, and I don't want to lose you."

"It can't be a new cloak, because you don't know my size."

"I saw no need of a new cloak, as the one you have is only three years old. Guess again."

"You—you wouldn't buy me a new dress?"

He gave me a loving smile and then stood up and made a great ado over opening the bundle. I heard the cat chuckling to himself, but dared not look around. When the paper fell off I saw a number of bright colored garments, but before I could draw my breath Mr. Bowser was holding up a lady's jacket belonging to a suit. It was of red velvet and trimmed with gold braid and gold buttons, and nothing could have been more gorgeous.

"What do you think of it?" he asked as his smile grew blander.

"I—Where did you get it?"

He reached down and picked up the skirt to it. That was even more gorgeous, as it had more gold braid on it. "Isn't it a daisy?" asked Mr. Bowser.

"But they are secondhand! And where did you get them?"

He reached down and brought up the hat to match. It was a big red hat with a long red plume and a red bird on it. As a matter of fact, the whole thing was a masquerade costume for a girl of seventeen. Such a costume could not have been worn even in a ballet. I sat like one turned to stone. I'd have given my right hand if Mr. Bowser hadn't done it.

"Well, why don't you whoop and rave?" he asked as he turned the hat round and round.

I said it was awfully kind of him, and then I was foolish enough to break down and begin to cry. Some women might have cried it off better, but it was not for me. If my life had depended on it I could not have kept the tears back. For a minute he thought I was weeping for joy, and he put me on the back and said nothing was too good for me. Then he happened to see the cat grinning, and he got suspicious.

"Well, let's hear from you," he said. "How came you to get them?" I finally asked.

"Why, I was going by a secondhand store and saw them displayed at a bargain figure. I asked the woman about it, and she said you would look like a girl in these things. Could you have done better yourself?"

It was a hard thing to go through, but I had to do it. I had to tell Mr. Bowser that he had been shamefully taken in and done for; that the colors did not become me and nothing fitted within a mile and that moths were already eating at the skirts of the dress and a mouse had nibbled off the end of the red plume. "He didn't say a word for three minutes," I didn't dare look at him or draw my breath during the interval. Then he uttered a wild yell and jumped up and down. Then there was a ripping and tearing and stamping, and the air was full of fragments. I looked up at him, but he had finished and stood panting.

"There they are!" he exclaimed, pointing to the strips and tatters. "It was for your birthday. I wanted to please you. I poured out my money like water. I have made a jackass of myself, but never again, Mrs. Bowser—never again! You can take your old birthday gifts and go to the pot with them."

He was down at the hall tree and into his overcoat and hat before I could find words to reply. Then the door banged, and he was gone. I had hurt his feelings, and I felt sorry for him. I put on my things and set out on my trail. It was a wild evening, with a gale blowing. I called at the drug store, the butcher shop and the plumber's, but they could give me no trace of Mr. Bowser. I made inquiries of pedestrians, but only one could tell me anything. He was a cross-eyed man with a limp in his left leg, and after thinking the matter over, he replied:

"Yes, I met a fat, sawed off man within two blocks of the river, and he was humping along and talking about gold braid and red plumes and ungrateful wives. If he was your husband, madam, you are a wider than this blessed mince of I'll eat my hat."

It is two days and two nights now. The hours drag slowly away, and I cannot look out of the window for my tears. Should any one meet Mr. Bowser as he wanders up and down the streets like a lost soul or sits humped up on a log out in the country and cannot believe life worth the living, please tell him that there is one waiting for him and that her name is

Wife of Mr. Bowser.

A Former Newark Boy on The Kenyon College Musical Club.

Stewart Wilson Goldsborough, who moved to Pittsburg, Pa., with his mother three years ago, will be with the Kenyon Glee Club on January 1 at Taylor Hall. Mr. Goldsborough has, as his record shows, been one of the most prominent men who have gone through Kenyon in several years. Besides singing two solos with the Glee club accompaniment he is also a member of the quartet, singing tenor at both times.

In college activities his name figures as chairman of the honor committee; president and secretary of the Pitt and Powder club; manager of the Collegian; football team, and 1936 Dramatic committee; class treasurer, chairman of class banquets; and tenor soloist of the Parish choir. In athletics, track captain and guard of the basketball team fall to him.

Mr. Goldsborough's many friends will be glad to see him on January 4. 2-2t

"BEER PLUGS" IN KANSAS.

Extract of Beer Sold in Chunks to Quench Thirst of Jayhawkers.

Extract of beer put up in the form of plugs like tobacco is what the thirsty Kansan may use now to quench his thirst, says a Topeka dispatch. One plug will make from four to six gallons of what is poetically termed the amber liquid. And the manufacturer bears seems to have all the qualities, good and bad, of that which is made from real hops and put in bottles and kegs.

The Kansas state board of health has inspected the extract and finds there are no adulterants or preservatives in it. The company which is to push the product guarantees its purity. "The state prohibition laws and the federal revenue laws have at last been surmounted. A Topeka man discovered how to make and sell the 'jag plugs.'"

PITH AND POINT.

SIMPLE LIFE IN FORTY YEARS

Generations More of "Nerves," Then National Sanity, Say Specialists.
Chicago specialists on "nerves" see the dawn of the sane and normal life, according to a special dispatch to the New York World.

"Just now we are moving as a nation toward nervous prostration," said Dr. John E. Murphy, "but we're not going to continue this foolishness for more than two generations. You may observe that the further you go west from Chicago the more strenuously you find life being lived and the farther east you go the easier life is being taken."

"The older community is always more leisurely, staid and sane and less clumsy and impetuous. The English know how to live. We don't, but we will learn."

Health Commissioner Whalen said that a recent investigation by the department of the prevalence of nervousness in Chicago and in the United States in general has shown a marked decrease in recent years.

"Nervousness is falling off the world over," said Dr. Whalen.

A minority report was presented in the comment of Dr. William N. Senn, who disagreed with Dr. Whalen. "Nervous prostration is the national malady," he said. "It's bound to be. Our strenuous life and improper manner of living make it inevitable. We may reform and return to the simple life. If we don't we're doomed."

HERO IN JAPANESE PROBLEM

Boy of Ten Subject of Educational Test Case in California Courts.

In these days of internal and international complications over the Japanese educational problem in California the most prominent figure is Kokichi Aoki, the ten-year-old son of Mitsuharu Aoki of 2231 Pine street, San Francisco, who has been selected by Japan and the United States to be the subject of the test case in the courts, says a San Francisco special dispatch to the New York Herald.

The boy's father refused to send him to the oriental school when the segregation rule of the board of education went into effect. He was selected by Consul Igino and was agreeable to the United States district attorney, who will present the case to the court for the United States.

So that the whole question of such great importance must revolve around young Aoki until the highest court has passed upon it. By that time the little Japanese boy will have helped make several chapters in modern history.

The board of education has no objection to the selection of Aoki as the subject for the court action, and from now on the case will make rapid progress in court unless some unforeseen complications arise.

Chinese Pirates.
When Chinese pirates are caught and convicted they usually pay the penalty of their crimes. A newspaper of the far east publishes this bit of news:

"Seven of the pirates who took part in the attack on the river steamer Sainam were beheaded in Canton. The prisoners were brought on to the ground in baskets, from which they were immediately released. They were then made to kneel in a row. Promptly on the stroke of 12 the executioners took up their positions in front of the doomed men and cut off their heads in very quick succession, to the accompaniment of loud shouts from the Chinese spectators."

New Laws in Force.
Some highly important legislation enacted at the last session of Congress went into effect Monday. Under this legislation it is now unlawful to issue free transportation on railroads engaged in interstate commerce, except in certain specified cases; to practice deception in labeling food products or drugs; to sell whiskey except under a label which tells the ingredients of the product and the age of the product. These restrictions apply to articles transported between the States and to foreign countries or made by parties engaged in interstate and foreign commerce.
Under some of the new Federal legislation it is lawful to manufacture and sell denatured alcohol without payment of internal revenue tax. It is the expectation that many will engage in the manufacture of this product in large or small quantities, and that a large industry in it will be created. The denatured alcohol will be used for fuel and other purposes, and it is expected to cheapen the production of many articles.

An entry in the congressional directory says: "Hon. J. R. Burton, a senator from Kansas, resigned his office June 4, 1906. Hon. A. W. Benson was appointed to fill the vacancy." That's letting a senator down easy while holding up the dignity of the Senate.

The first contribution to the relief fund for China amounted to $5,000, and the fund is growing. It is a safe guess that the relief fund will prove the American goods that the Chinese will not boycott.

Secretary Root wants a lot of men paid a handsome subsidy from the national treasury for engaging in profitable business. You can always depend upon Republican leaders standing for special privileges.

Selling "beer extract in chunks" is the latest dodge in prohibition Kansas, but it leads to wonder how such a cup can cheer those who have been accustomed to the real thing, so we must consider that the prohibition brethren are the purchasers.

What a nice thing it would be for the people of the United States if the Republican party would follow the New Year's example of some people and turn over a new leaf. There are a host of good resolves that the Republican leaders could declare for, they could reduce extravagant expenditures; reform the tariff that protects the trusts; refuse a ship subsidy that the shipping trust will chiefly profit by; pass a currency bill that would help the people instead of the favored national banks. But what's the use of telling all the good things

Frenchman Meets Greek.
Chicago, Jan. 2.—Carl Pons, French champion heavyweight wrestler, and William Demetral, the local Greek wrestler, divided honors in a match here. Demetral won the first fall in 27 minutes with the reverse half-nelson and head lock. Pons took the second in 19 minutes, using the half-nelson and head lock. The third bout was declared a draw.

DOCTORS ADMIT
That They Can Do Nothing More for Your Stomach Than Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Are Doing Every Day.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY.
According to the expert analysis of government authorities in the United States and Great Britain, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the exact elements provided by nature for digesting food in the healthy stomach.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have saved sufferers from stomach disorders millions of dollars by giving them, in one small 50 cent package, more relief than countless treatments by physicians would bring about at $3.00 per visit.
Perhaps you are afflicted with dyspepsia—or some kindred disease arising from a disordered digestion. It may be headaches, heartburn, nervous debility. They all have their beginning in a stomach which does not secrete the juices or grind the food which is taken into it.
If so, we urge you to send for a free trial package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. It will cost you nothing and surely will bring you no gain unless you find, after using it, that you are benefited and feel that you need a full-sized package.
There is absolutely no danger in using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Nothing is contained in them that has not been subjected to the closest scrutiny by the government officials.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest your food without demanding a careful diet. One grain of these Tablets has power to digest 3,000 grains of ordinary food. You can be sure therefore that no matter what your condition, these little tablets taken after each meal will shortly restore your stomach to its normal condition and render it capable of doing its work unassisted.
We withhold the names of hundreds who have written us voluntarily expressing their gratitude to this simple substitute for nature.
Send for trial package today, F. A. Stuart Co., 70 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

HORSE SCARED AT TROLLEY CAR
CHAS. FRANKS AND CHILDREN HAD NARROW ESCAPE AT HEBRON.
Mrs. Abigail Sams' Funeral—Dr. Rarick Locates in Columbus—Jacksontown News.

Jacksontown, Jan. 2.—On Sunday while Mr. Charles Franks and two children were out driving, and in the village of Hebron, the horse, missing an intermission car, became frightened and jumped in front of the car. The buggy was overturned and the occupants who were thrown out, miraculously escaped injury, but were thoroughly frightened. The prompt action of the motorman in stopping the car at once, saved the life of the horse, which received only a few cuts. The horse ran east and was caught at the Hebron cemetery by Mr. John Cullen.
The funeral ceremonies held over the remains of Mrs. Abigail Sams, one of the oldest and most respected women of this village, whose death occurred on Sunday morning, were conducted by Rev. Mrs. Amos Burgett at the F. B. church on Tuesday morning.
Mrs. Ashton and children returned home Sunday after spending several days with her relatives at Reynolds.
Miss Grace Osburn spent Saturday and Sunday with her cousin, Miss Adah Tavenor at Linville.

Dr. M. M. Rarick and wife left for Columbus Monday, where they will make their home. The doctor's many friends wish him every success in his new field of labor.
Rev. L. C. Boyce will preach at Fairmont Sunday at 2 o'clock, sun time.
Mr. Walter Davis and sister Susie delightfully entertained a few of their friends at their home in Atherton, on New Year's eve.
Mrs. Morry Smith and two daughters, Elvira and Naomi, of Fredonia, and Miss Cadda Neil of Thornville, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Handley, during the holidays.
Dr. O. N. Wolcott was calling on relatives in the village on Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Palmer of Terre Haute, Indiana, are the guests of the Misses Crow.

NEED VINOL
it strengthens and vitalizes
With old age comes feebleness and loss of power; the organs act more slowly, and less effectively; the blood is thin, sluggish and watery; digestion is weak and food is not assimilated as it used to be.
Vinol repairs worn tissues and checks the natural decline. It tones up the digestive organs, aids assimilation, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body. In this natural manner Vinol reduces weakness with strength.
Vinol contains all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil in a concentrated form, taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added.
Is it because we know so well of what Vinol is made that we offer to return money if it fails to benefit. Frank D. Hall, Druggist.
Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Newark, it is now for sale at the leading drug stores in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

Nisley-Lawyer Wedding a Surprise—A Budget of Live News From Village of Hebron.

Hebron, O., Jan. 2.—If the gas well on the Clark farm one mile east of town, being drilled by the Columbus company, proves to be a gusher, our little village will then be surrounded by gas. We have now west, five big gas wells, within one and a half miles of town, rating from five to fourteen and one-half million feet per day. Friday the Columbus Gas and Fuel company struck another good well on Governor Kuhn's farm on the north side of the National road, with a flow of 12 1-2 million a day. This well is just about 20 rods from the Mack Kagey well, which is the largest one, 14 1-2 million, drilled by the Columbus Gas company. Monday noon the Heisey company completed a good well on the Charles Gill farm at Luray. This makes the third well on that farm, all good. The Heisey company commenced a well on the Newton White farm near Union Station, which will be the last well for this season by this company.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Lemley and daughter Miss Lola, and Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Burch were entertained at dinner Sunday at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Jarret Lemley on Basin street.

James Cully was greatly surprised on entering the I. O. O. F. lodge room Saturday evening to see his son Taylor C. Cully occupying a prominent seat in the room, and his first question was, "Son, how did you get in here?" During Taylor's trip south he became a member of the Odd Fellows' lodge and guarded the secret carefully until he had an opportunity of meeting his father in the lodge here.
Andrew Orilly and Benton Frisloe of Newark attended Odd Fellows' lodge here Saturday evening.
After spending several months with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Smith in Bellefontaine, Miss Lela Sawyer returned home Christmas day in time to entertain at 6 o'clock dinner Floyd Rutter and Elbert Garwood of Bellefontaine, and Miss Belle Chism of Hebron.
W. A. Smith, wife and two daughters of Bellefontaine are visiting her parents, S. S. Sawyer and wife.
Miss Carrie Sawyer of Columbus, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. F. Seibert Christmas day.

SKELETONS
Of Prehistoric Giants Unearthed By a Railroad Gang—Workmen Fled at the Sight.
Danville, Ind., Jan. 2.—Conservation reigned for a short time yesterday in the ranks of ignorant and superstitious Huns and Greeks at work in the big cut on the Big Four improvements southwest of Danville, when parts of skeletons of three enormously large men were dug up. For a time the pandemonium was worse than if an agent of the "Black Hand" had dropped among them. They fled in every direction, jabbering to each other, and it was all an interpreter could do to pacify the men and get them back into the pit.
The finding of the bones was no new thing to old residents of this part of the state, and only goes to prove what they have often claimed, that Hendricks county was once inhabited by a race of giants and Indians who buried their dead in mounds. Skeletons of men who were at least eight feet tall have been found from time to time, four having been unearthed several years ago on the farm of Adam Record, two miles south of Danville, being taken from what is known as the "Indian Mounds." A few weeks ago three were taken from the gravel pit of the Indianapolis and Western traction line near Avon. The latter were bones of very large men. Strange weapons and utensils were also found. The bones of the skeletons crumbled when exposed to the air.

BAIRD

New York, Jan. 2.—That great debt which the United States owes to pioneers of science who made possible the material advancement of the country was fittingly recognized Saturday, when the busts of ten of them were unveiled at the American Museum of Natural History.
Two of the number, according to the strictest interpretation, cannot be considered as American, because of foreign birth, although much of their most important work was done on this side of the water. The influence of these ten, however who blazed the paths of knowledge in the New World and showed the way which men of action followed to success, still endures. As far as this scientific world is concerned, they soon obtained all the honors which they merited.
Universities across the sea gave them degrees and savants in foreign lands sounded their praises. It was a tardy recognition which came to several of them from the people among whom they lived. From the point of view which the world considers success, some were absolute failures, for their indifference to money and their lack of financial ability kept them in perpetual difficulties.
They were, however, largely responsible for the development of the great natural resources of the country, they enriched hundreds of captains of industry, and provided new and profitable occupations for millions of their fellow men. From a scientific standpoint, and from an educational one, their lives are an inspiration, yet the consideration of the results of the manifold activities reckoned even in terms of the material shows that the country owes them a deep obligation.
Science is now recognized as an important aid in all great enterprises but when these pioneers, who were honored Saturday, were doing their hardest work the investigator of nature was regarded as a dreamer of dreams, who followed his harmless amusements while his fellows battled with actual conditions.
No more striking example of the change in public opinion could be given than was furnished at the exercises at the Museum in the presence of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Those who took leading parts were practical men of affairs. The memorials were presented to the institution by Mr. Morris K. Jessup, its president.

MYSTERY SOLVED AFTER MANY MONTHS

St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—The mystery surrounding the murder of ex-Deputy Hertzstein has after months of investigation finally been unraveled. Hertzstein, who was a member of the lower house of parliament from Moscow, was murdered at his country home near Terioki, Finland, on July 31, 1906. A secret committee of the Constitutional Democratic party has traced the entire conspiracy and has obtained definite proof that the deed was the work of the League of Russian People. A man named Yushkevitch is a prominent leader of this league, and it is alleged that he hired the assassins to kill Hertzstein.

IN A WRECK

Eight Persons Seriously Injured and a Score Shaken Up.
Lexington, Ky., Jan. 2.—Eight people were seriously injured and 24 others badly shaken up in a wreck on the Louisville & Atlantic railway, 40 miles from Richmond, Ky. The most seriously injured are: Albert Wilson, his two sons, Edward and Clasp; the wife and child of Edward Wilson, all of this city, and three passengers whose names are unknown. The baby's hand was burned completely off. Mrs. Wilson was burned severely about the body. The wreck was caused by a broken flange on the pony trucks of the engine. The engine and one coach jumped the track, turning completely over. The injured are at the Richmond hospital.

A ROYAL WRAP.
Imperial Sables, Erlime Lined

What is perhaps one of the prettiest designs set forth in costly sables is that pictured herewith. The pelt has increased so wonderfully in cost during the past few years that purchasers invariably plan some way of making whereby the skins shall not be unduly cut into; so that when the modes change—as they do all too frequently for such costly possessions—the exquisite pelts will not have to be sacrificed because of irregularity of shape or cut. In the beautiful garment illustrated there is rather more than a suggestion of the Empire style. The top is fashioned with the stripes of the fur, the dark markings meeting in the center in a V and the fronts following the same lines. The lower part is of a circular cut, but so deftly are the skins handled that straight strips of the fur give an air of slenderness to the wearer and take away from the bulky effect that such deep haired pelts so often afford. The entire lining is of snowy ermine, so that when the fronts are left open fascinating glimpses of this white fur are seen, and in order that its flatteringly becoming effect shall be fully utilized a flat collar and little stole fronts of this same white pelt are used, the same hint repeated in the cuff. The sable paws, beads and tails form a fringe both to the Empire yoke and the lower edge of the of the garment, and the alluring art of the furrier is deftly exercised so that no part of the valuable pelt is unused. The muff that matches is one of the new square shapes that have both pockets and a bag cunningly concealed in their making, the two upper corners defined with a little sable head, while the paws and tails decorate the lower corners.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS LOCAL AND GENERAL

ULTIMATUM TO HARRIMAN IS SENT BY GRAND MASTER OF B. OF R. T.

Wants Grievances Ended—To Probe Block Signal System—Wages Increased—Accidents.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 2.—Grand Master John J. Hannahan of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers telegraphed a second ultimatum to E. H. Harriman of the Southern Pacific railroad, warning him of the impending drastic measures that will be placed into effect unless he exercises his powers to terminate the grievances now pending.

The telegram to Mr. Harriman says: "The dispute on the Atlantic system of the Southern Pacific company, notwithstanding statements to the contrary, is between your company and our members. On other of your lines the feeling is growing that they may expect the same injustice in the near future. If your representatives really desire arbitration, we are anxious to adjust in that way, and we insist that a third party should not be permitted to countenance your company in this matter. Once more, in justice to the men and the public who will be affected by an extension of the strike to other parts of your system, I ask you to exercise your authority and restore the conditions which the abrogation of the agreement took away from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen on May 1. Your officials entered willingly into an agreement with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers that nullified the same. I await an immediate answer. Not hearing from you, I shall feel that I have exercised due patience and have served a final notice to the public."

Mr. Hannahan sent this telegram following a conference of union officials.

Railway Legislation Promised.
Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 2.—The legislature of Nebraska organized for its thirtieth session. In the house D. M. Nettleton of Clay was elected speaker, and in the senate C. L. Saunders of Douglas was elected president pro tem. Speeches made in both houses promised legislation regulating the railroads and other corporations.

Ten Per Cent Increase.
Toledo, O., Jan. 2.—As an appreciation of faithful service 1,000 men employed by the Toledo Railway and Light company and the Maumee Valley Railway and Light company, including about 900 conductors and motormen, received a 10 per cent increase in wages. The increase was voluntary on the part of both companies, and also affects the division superintendents and inspectors, barn foremen, dispatchers, foremen of repairs and their assistants. The increase amounts to 2 cents an hour and means an additional $5,000 monthly expenditure by the company. The streetcar men have no union.

Plunge of a Car.
Akron, O., Jan. 2.—A crowded Bowery streetcar left the tracks on the viaduct here, plunged over the railing and hung suspended a distance of 75 feet above the canal and railroad tracks. There was a panic among the passengers and several were injured, none of them seriously.

Brakeman's Fall.
Bowling Green, O., Jan. 2.—Chester Henry, single, a brakeman on the Ohio Central, was fatally hurt near here. He was looking for a leak in the airbrake when he fell from his train. His parents live at Mt. Victory.

Over an Embankment.
Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 2.—Forty-eight passengers on a suburban traction car on the Wheeling & Elm Grove line were bruised, two seriously, at Fulton, near here, when the car jumped the track and plunged over a four foot embankment.

Boy Caused the Wreck.
Salt Lake City, Jan. 2.—Roy Swartz, the young telegrapher, who was arrested for causing the wreck of an Oregon Short Line train at Peterson, Utah, which caused the death of Engineer McFreely and serious injuries to two other trainmen, has confessed that he alone caused the wreck. The youth says he was prompted to the deed by a desire to see the long freight train plunge into the river below.

To Probe Block Signal Systems.
Washington, Jan. 2.—The interstate commerce commission reached an agreement to investigate the block signal systems on both the Southern and Baltimore & Ohio railways, in view of the recent disastrous collisions and derailments on those roads attended by serious injury and loss of life. The first hearing will be held in this city Friday, Jan. 4.

Granted Increase.
El Paso, Tex., Jan. 2.—The Mexican Central railroad conductors announce that the road has granted the increase in wages which they demanded, which is equal to the pay of the conductors in the United States, and there will be no strike. The increase amounts to about 15 per cent.

KNOFF BOWLED IN GREAT GAME AND NEWARK LOST

FAST ALLEYS BOTHERED NEWARK BOWLERS IN $100 CONTEST.

Another Match Game Will be Arranged for Early Date—Crowd Was Present.

An honorable defeat was that handed to the Newark 30 man team of bowlers at the Music Hall alleys Tuesday afternoon when the two man team from Cambridge rolled five sensational games of ten pins and defeated the Newark bunch by a total of 81 pins on the series of five games. The contest was interesting from the fact that a purse of $50 the side was handed to the winning team. As has been stated, the five games rolled Tuesday afternoon finished the series of ten games, the first five of which were rolled on the alleys at Cambridge. Newark won this contest by 6 pins, Clayton and Baker comprising the Newark team.

Yesterday Clayton was replaced by Noel Armstrong and though both Newark men rolled good games, the visitors rolled better and defeated them. The alleys were in splendid shape, though a little fast. This fooled the Newark boys more than the visitors and the balls worked over on the alleys a little too fast.

The defeat was administered to the Newark team before the largest crowd ever assembled in the Music Hall alleys. The house was packed almost to suffocation and the management found it necessary to raise the windows to admit fresh air.

Knoff of Cambridge saved the day for Cambridge by averaging 191 for the 5 games. There is no doubt but this is above his average and in fact one of the members of the visiting team stated that their only hope of winning was that Knoff would have a "fit." He had it, and rolled ten plus like a crazy man.

There were few errors in either side in the contest. Blohme is the best bowler in Guernsey county and Knoff is among the best. The Newark team consoles itself with the thought that they lost to worthy opponents. The Cambridge team members are both gentlemen in every particular.

Armstrong and Baker, while admitting defeat with good grace, are ready to put up a similar purse that it can not be done again. In all probability, another game will be arranged in the near future.

MANY VISITORS AT THE Y. M. C. A.

NEW YEAR'S DAY RECEPTION AND PROGRAM WAS MUCH ENJOYED.

Walter Bentley Ball at His Best—
Calendar Exhibit—Athletic Program—Lecture.

Tuesday at the Y. M. C. A. was one of the most largely attended and most successful New Year open house events ever given by the local association according to the reports of those who visited the institution on that day. According to actual count during a part of the day there were over a thousand visitors. The delightful features of the generally enjoyable program were the concerts of the afternoon and evening, the exhibition and games in the gym and the delightful display of calendars.

In the forenoon the juniors of the gym gave all a surprise by defeating the High school freshmen in a great game of basketball. The High school boys have a good team, but the "Y" juniors showed the excellent training of Director Ludwig and showed it very effectively.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the crowds began to flock to the building. Considerable time was taken in admiring the beautiful display of art calendars and calendar designs furnished by Mrs. A. C. Hatch, Mr. Black of Woods avenue, T. M. Edmiston, and A. L. Norton. A number of the calendars were purchased by the visitors and the entire display will be left in place, on exhibition, throughout the week and will be sold, the proceeds to go to the juniors of the association.

At 3 o'clock the guests entered Taylor hall where the Walter Bentley Ball Concert company gave a highly interesting and artistic program.

Mr. Ball was at his best and gave the audience a delightful rendition of the numbers which he chose so widely for the afternoon's entertainment. Miss Corina Clinkenbeard made a decidedly favorable impression upon her hearers by the inimitable style of her readings. Possibly the most favorable impression was made by her interpretation of male characters.

Immediately following this entertainment the large audience was invited into the gymnasium where a fine athletic exhibition took place. Messrs. Frank Duncan, Frank Lewis, Edward Williams and Physical Director Ludwig were highly applauded for their exceedingly clever and pretty exhibition of tumbling. This seemed to set forth the style of advanced work taken up in the physical department. Mr. Duncan merits special mention for a series of clever feats on the flying rings. He was heartily applauded.

The business and professional men formed two mixed teams and went in for a game of volleyball with the result that the professional men were defeated. One team was composed of Messrs. Parkinson, Lichtig, Scott Williams, and Flory; the other, Messrs. Prior, Nusbaum, Jordan, Randolph, Flory and Flory.

Another basketball game between the regular Newark High team and the Association Never-Wins resulted in a 12 to 18 score in favor of the High school team.

From 5:30 until 7 the annual New Year's supper was given in the juniors' quarters on the third floor. From 6 o'clock until 7 over 250 guests were fed.

The closing event before the Paul M. Pearson lecture was the informal reception tendered the public and new members, in which the wives of the officials of the association took a prominent part.

Paul M. Pearson's lecture on "Plantation Days in Song and Story" was the principal feature of the day. Mr. Pearson is a gifted reader whose familiarity with the works and style of Lawrence Dunbar and Joel Chandler Harris shows diligent and scholarly style. Possible the best rendered was that powerful work of Lawrence Dunbar, "The Oak Tree." He was the recipient of hearty applause and

MONGOOSE AND COBRA AND MEN WHO TOOK THEM AT SEA.

THE MONGOOSE-COBRA FIGHT ON THE S.S. LICHTENTHAL.

New York, Jan. 2.—With the death of a mongoose and a cobra in the Lichtenfels, a German freight steamship which came into port yesterday from the Far East, there ended a remarkable chain of fatalities among the animals taken from India by officers of the vessel. The mongoose and the snake died simultaneously, locked together at the end of one of the most exciting battles ever fought at sea.

On December 6 the mongoose darted into the box wherein lay the cobras and tore open the throat of one of the drowsy snakes. Then it turned its attention to the other.

Over and over the platform went the snake and he mongoose until the his hearers regretted that the program should close so soon.

The greatest possible amount of credit is due to Secretary Shuman for the wonderful success of this year's open house. Although last year the affair was a success, conditions have changed to such an extent that Mr. Shuman was able to place the New Year's program one notch higher along every line.

BASKET BALL.

Newark will be represented in the great winter sport of basket ball by a strong five composed of the members of Company G, of the Fourth regiment. The first game will be played Friday night at the Armory, Company K of Delaware being the opponents. The Delaware soldiers have been defeated but once this season and in spite of this fact the Newark team is confident. The game will be called at 7:30. Fulton Van Voorhis will referee the game.

INSURANCE REFORMS ARE NOW IN EFFECT

New York, Jan. 2.—The insurance reforms secured by the Armstrong committee of the legislature have gone into effect. Hereafter no company will be allowed to write more than $150,000,000 worth of business a year; agents' commissions will be reduced at least one-fourth; every new policy must contain the full contract under which the holder and insurer alike are bound, and no more deferred dividend policies may be issued. Several other less drastic changes go into effect also.

It is no longer safe for women to venture out alone in New York. They are as likely as not to be suddenly pounced upon by some irresponsible man and hauled away to court on an absurd charge.

Mrs. Alexander Trautman, a member of an old Southern family, and wife of a prominent doctor, was accused the other day by a stenographer named Peter J. Hogan, of having held him up in the street at night and robbed him of $13. Mrs. Trautman was imprisoned until bail could be secured. At the trial in a police court, although Hogan still insisted it was she who took his money, Mrs. Trautman was completely exonerated.

Free from Alcohol

Since May, 1906, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been entirely free from alcohol. If you are in poor health, weak, pale, nervous, ask your doctor about taking this non-alcoholic tonic and alternative. If he has a better medicine, take his. Get the best, always. This is our advice. We have no secret! We publish the formulae of all our preparations. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

ATTEMPT IS MADE TO BLOW UP SHIP

Odessa, Jan. 2.—A band of unknown men attempted to blow up the Russian Steamship company's Atlantic liner Gregory Morch, which just completed her first trip in the new Odessa-New York service. A desperate struggle took place between the crew and members of the band, during which several sailors were shot. The lighted fuse of the bomb was extinguished before any damage was done.

A Remarkable Lighthouse. At the entrance of Odessa harbor, in Russia, is a sunken rock which has been the source of danger to navigators for centuries past, says the Detroit Free Press. The Russians have decided to erect on this rock a lighthouse which will rival in originality and interest any lighthouse of ancient or modern times. This is to be a gigantic figure of Christ holding aloft in his left hand a cross. The light, one of exceptional brilliancy, is to be placed in the center of the cross. What more fitting emblem for a lighthouse can one conceive than this figure of the Light of the World guiding the mariner on life's sea to the port of safety?

STOP DRINKING!

Orrine Destroys all Desire for Drink
How to "Swear Off."

One out of every seven drinking men swear off religiously at New Year's, but how few of the good resolutions are carried out. WHY NOT? Because the continual drinking in the past has weakened the nerve cells of the human system until the craving for drink has fastened itself so strongly that temptation cannot be resisted.

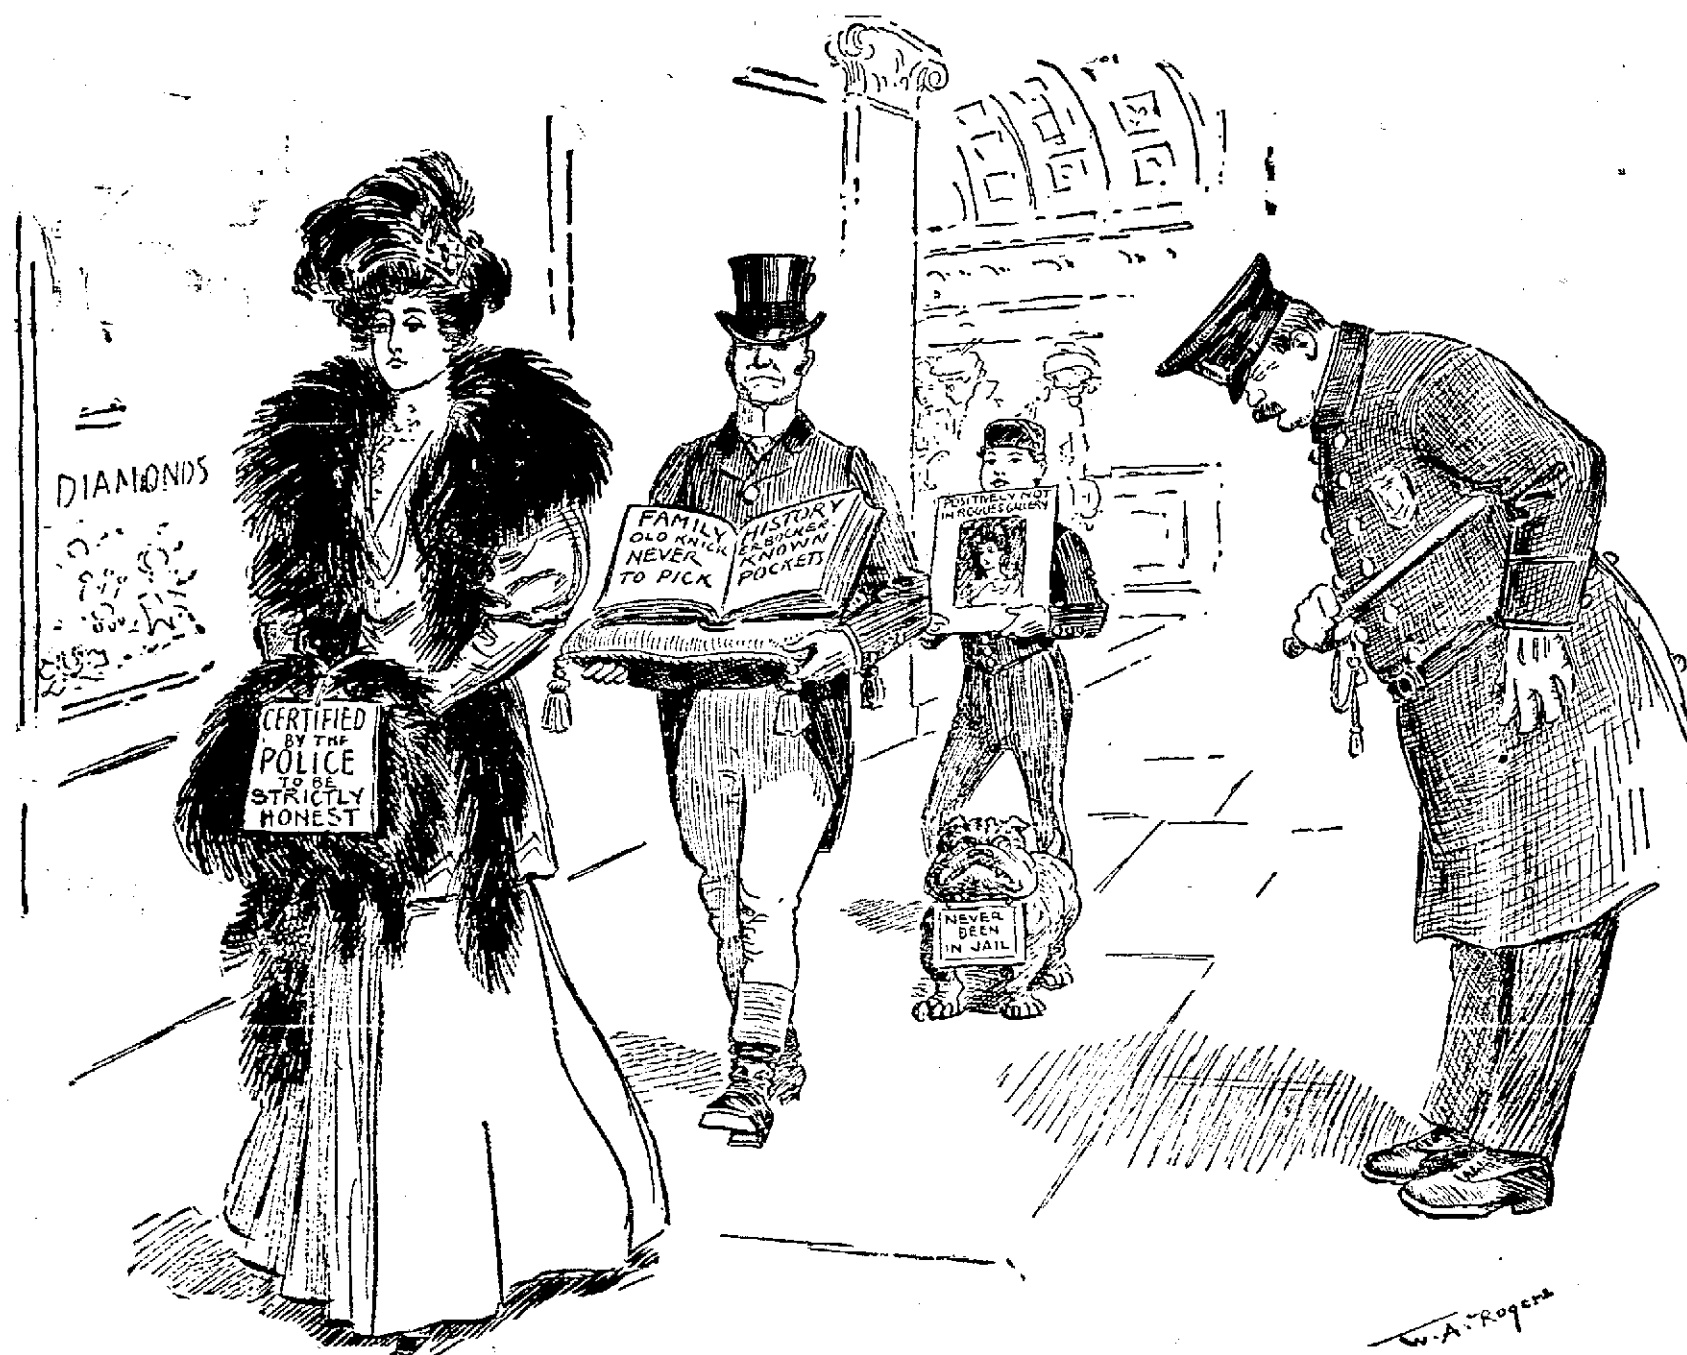

Thousands of persons who really want to quit the use of whiskey and beer realize that they cannot do so without medical help, yet they cannot afford the time or perhaps the money to go to a sanatorium. Happily a cure for drunkenness has been discovered which is to be taken at home and costs less than the average drinker will spend in a day for drink.

Mothers, wives and sisters can give Orrine without the patient's knowledge. Orrine No. 1 is to be given secretly. It is perfectly tasteless, colorless and odorless. Orrine No. 2 is for those willing to take the remedy. Either form costs but $1 per box. Mail orders filled on receipt of price.

Cure Effectuated or Money Refunded.

KID HERMAN OUTCLASSED

He Made a Poor Showing In His Bout With Joe Gans.

STOPPED IN EIGHTH ROUND

Blow on the Jaw Put Him to the Mat and He Is Carried to His Corner. Frankly Admits the Superiority of the Colored Champion—Review of the Contest.

Tonopah, Nev., Jan. 2.—"There is no getting away from it. The best man won. I made the best fight that was in me, against a superior man. I can not deny that he is the best man and I don't begrudge him his victory."

So said Kid Herman of Chicago in discussing his defeat at the hands of Joe Gans, the colored lightweight champion.

In the fight here Tuesday evening, Herman was outclassed throughout. He never had a chance, and he will never have a chance when he meets a man of Gans' caliber.

Gans, after toying with the kid for seven rounds, landed a full swing in the eighth on the point of Herman's jaw, and the Chicago lad went down a defeated man.

In the first round Joe started to feel things out. Herman was willing to fight, but the champion stalled him off. In the second round Gans started to open up. Herman's attempts to land all ended in failure. Gans blocked Herman's leads with glove and elbow, and when opportunity presented shot right and left jolts to his opponent's face. The third and fourth rounds were repetitions of the second. It was plainly seen that Herman, the "under dog," was the crowd's favorite. When he landed a blow the crowd cheered wildly. Gans only drew the applause when he fought his cleverest.

In the fifth round Gans, having measured his man, slowed down. This was the only round where Herman made any showing. Herman waded in and swung hard rights and lefts at the champion. Gans appeared careless and a number of the blows landed. The crowd cheered madly for the Chicagoan at the end of the round.

The sixth and seventh rounds were all Gans'. In the eighth Gans started out by feinting and drawing Herman's fire. They fiddled around the ring until Gans worked his opponent into a corner. Gans feinted with his left and Herman swung wildly with his left. He left an opening. Like a flash Gans whipped left and then a swinging right flush on the point of Herman's jaw. Herman dropped like a log, with his face buried in his hands. He lay motionless at the edge of the ring. Gans walked away and it was all over. Nate Lewis ran around the ring to where Herman lay and begged him to rise, but Herman was senseless. At the count of ten Lewis and Adam Ryan carried their protegee to his corner, where three minutes elapsed before he revived.

The fight was not without its incidents. The heaviest betting developed at the ringside. In the second the men were milling it fiercely when the gong sounded. Herman heeded the bell, and stepped back from a clinch. Gans, not hearing the bell, landed a hard right on Herman's neck. The crowd arose and hissed and hooted. It was then that Gans realized what he had done and, facing the crowd, made a public apology. Not content with this, Gans went to Herman's corner and, grasping the latter's hand, explained that he had not heard the gong. Hisses changed to cheers as Gans returned to his seat.

Ten-Round Draw.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 2.—Dave Deshier of Cambridge, Mass., and Charley Neary of Milwaukee fought a fierce 10-round draw before the Badger Athletic club, at 133 pounds. Young Fitzgerald of Milwaukee knocked out Denny Lyons of Cincinnati in the seventh round of a scheduled eight round bout at 108 pounds.

Wages Advanced.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 2.—Wages of coal miners in southern Colorado districts were advanced 10 per cent. Over 6,000 men are benefited. The increase amounts to $600,000 a year.

COSHOCTON USED WHITEWASH BRUSH

Defeated Newark Polo Team in Dirty Game at the Palace Rink on Tuesday Night.

In a polo game which was disgusting to the crowd of fans who witnessed it, Coshocton defeated Newark Tuesday night at the Palace rink by a score of 3 to 0. There was dirty playing on the part of certain Newark players, which even brought ridicule from the audience. Sweetzer was really the only man on the Newark team who was playing real polo. His good work at the goal saved the Newark team from defeat by a larger score, as he had 36 stops. The game was largely played in Newark territory.

The Coshocton manager registered a big kick over what he terms unfair treatment by the Newark management. He stated that the Newark team on its last trip to Coshocton, brought seven men, whose expenses were paid by the Coshocton management. The visitors last night had seven men, but the local management would pay the expenses of but six.

Tuesday night's game was refereed by Mr. Will Foss, who called four fouls during the game. Smart and Lake each had a foul while Thompson and Barker made the misplays for Coshocton. The score:

Newark: Heath, first rush; Smart, second rush; Thomas, center; Lake, halfback; Sweetzer, goal.

Coshocton: Thompson, first rush; Barker, second rush; Pope, center; Smythe, halfback; Deed, goal.

Coshocton ..... 0 2 1—3
Summary—Rushes: Heath 6; Thomas 2; Goals: Barker 2; Pope 1. Fouls: Smart, Lake, Thompson, Pope. Stops: Sweetzer 36; Reed 9. Referee, Foss. Timer, Roesser.

THIRD PLACE GIVEN TO LANCASTER CLUB

Official Score Failed to Report Game Which Would Have Put New Castle Back.

Akron, O., Jan. 2.—After President Morton of the O. P. league, announced his team averages of the O. P. league, Lancaster protested that it should have third place, instead of New Castle, and gave the reasons. Morton began to investigate, and found that the official scorer of the New Castle team had failed to report the first of two games played between New Castle and Lancaster at New Castle on August 4, when Lancaster won 3 to 2. The second game which was a tie, was reported. After getting this report, Morton revised his figures, and announced that Lancaster should be in third place and New Castle fourth.

NEW CASTLE CLUB IS AGAINST IT

Will Protes Against Youngstown and Akron Withdrawing From the O. P. League.

New Castle, Jan. 2.—New Castle is to protest against the withdrawal of Youngstown and Akron from the O. P. league for the Central league which it is said, they intend doing. At the meeting of all organized baseball leagues in the country, with the exception of Class A leagues, which will be held in New York, January 7, A. C. Hyde of this city, will protest the withdrawal of these two towns from O. P. league territory. There is a rule that no town can desert one league for another without the unanimous consent of the other towns represented in the league, and New Castle is to fight for the enforcement of this rule.

At a meeting of the directors of the New Castle team this action was decided upon. Both towns are too valuable for the O. P. to lose and every effort is to be made to keep the league intact as far as Youngstown and Akron are concerned.

Found Murdered.

New York, Jan. 2.—Mrs. William Wilson, wife of a stableman in Wellington, N. J., was found murdered in her home when her husband returned from work. She had evidently been dragged from her bed, for she still wore her night clothes. She had apparently been strangled with a towel, which was twisted around her neck. Besides, there was a stab wound in the stomach and a blow on the head had made a hole in the skull.

In the six months ended June 29, 2,297,20 miles of new railway track were laid in this country, a greater amount of new construction than in any corresponding six months in the last 15 years, except in 1902, when new construction aggregated 2,314 miles.

The Milan (Italy) Exposition of 1906 at which the silk display of particular interest, demonstrated absolutely that the industry owes its predominance and success to cheap girl labor, which is paid from 20 cents to 34 cents a day.

TO TEST TITLE OF M'CLELLAN

Hearst Wants the Mayoralty Election Case Reopened.

HE ASKS FOR REARGUMENT

Promptly Accepts the Offer of the New Attorney General and Files Application For Rehearing on Petition For Leave to File Quo Warranto Proceedings.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2.—The first paper served on Attorney General Jackson was an application for a reargument on the petition of William Randolph Hearst for leave to begin quo warranto proceedings to test the title of George B. McClellan to the office of mayor of New York, of which Mr. Hearst claims to have been deprived by fraud and violence in the election of 1905.

The attorney general gave instructions that copies of the papers be served upon the attorneys of Mayor McClellan, and informed both parties that he would give them a hearing Jan. 7.

The application filed with the attorney general reiterates substantially the allegations made before Attorney General Mayer. Further, it recites the developments of the case before the latter and summarizes his decision denying relief, declaring that Mr. Mayer well knew that the prima facie proof of Mr. Hearst's election could not be forthcoming without opening the boxes. The situation created by Attorney General Mayer's decision says the application "was practically this: The court of appeals and the legislature had refused to permit the ballots to be recounted on the ground that this should be done in a quo warranto action. The attorney general refused to permit a new quo warranto action to be begun, holding, in effect, that the ballots must first be counted."

It is further alleged that the attorney general "in a hasty decision," rendered four days after the submission of the matter, incorporated bodily a verbatim excerpt from the corporation counsel's analysis of figures embodying great and glaring errors of addition and subtraction, and that Mr. Mayer either did not read the answering analysis or willfully misstates the facts.

HELD VOID.

Federal Court Passes on La Follette Fellow Servants Law.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 2.—Judge McCall of the federal court declared the La Follette fellow servants act unconstitutional. The action was that of Damselle Howard against the Illinois Central Railroad company, and a special representative of the department of justice at Washington argued the case for the government. Judge McCall said: "I am unable to bring my mind to the conclusion that the liability of a common carrier to its employee for injuries is interstate commerce, or commerce of any character within the meaning of the commerce clause of the constitution."

URGES RELIEF

From Excessive Duties Imposed On Philippine Exports.

Washington, Jan. 2.—In its annual report the Philippine commission again urges relief from the excessive duties now imposed on imports of sugar and tobacco into the United States. The commission recommends that congress at least reduce the duties on these two products to 25 per cent of the present rate. The commission also renews its recommendation for a repeal of the act of congress providing for the refund of duties paid on articles exported from the islands to the United States and consumed therein. Assurance is given that there is abundant land for the use of all the capital that can be coaxed into the islands, with limitations fairly liberal, and still leave more land for the Filipinos than can be occupied by them for hundreds of years.

STORK BUSY.

Births, Marriages and Deaths of the Year in New York.

New York, Jan. 2.—Health Commissioner Darlington made public the birth, marriage and death statistics of Greater New York for 1906, with the comment that the figures indicated a prosperous 12 months. The number of births and marriages have increased in a healthy ratio, while the death rate is rather low as compared with the increase in population. During 1906 there were reported 111,172 births, an increase over 1905 of 8,099; 48,355 marriages, an increase of 5,799; 75,206 deaths, an increase of 2,492. The birth record is the greatest ever reported.

Turk Guards Defied the People.

Constantinople, Jan. 2.—A panic occurred on the main thoroughfare here as the result of desperate action by two soldiers of the imperial guard, who drew sword bayonets and held the bridge connecting the populous sections of Galata and Stamboul. Owing to the men being members of the imperial guard the police had not power to arrest them, and business was suspended more than an hour until the guardsmen were arrested by soldiers.

AMUSEMENTS

HIS MAJESTY AND THE MAID.

The annual tour of Miss Emerson in whatever play she may elect to appear in is always an event of importance in local theatrical circles. Miss Emerson is now one of the Nixon & Zimmerman comedians of stars, and this means that in the matter of scenic equipment, costuming and strength of supporting cast, nothing but the best will be tolerated. Miss Emerson is using as her vehicle this season a play which has been cried and "The Maid," a romantic piece in four acts. This ingenious play is somewhat similar in style and construction to the Anthony Hope dramas like "The Prisoner of Zenda," and "Rupert of Hentzau." Miss Emerson has previously visited Newark. She returns to the Auditorium on Thursday, January 3, tomorrow evening.

VIRGINIA HARNED COMING.

Miss Virginia Harned, an enthusiastic advocate of the encouragement of American playwrights, and during last summer read a large number of domestic productions, but without finding anything which exactly suited her.

The discovery of a love letter of doubtful date, and the bewilderment of husbands Nos. one and two of the recipient, go to make up a series of laughable complications in "The Love Letter," which is being presented by Miss Virginia Harned and a star company. At the Auditorium Saturday night, January 5.

AMELIA BINGHAM JAN. 7.

"There should be an institution of national character where girls might be taught the use of good English," said Amelia Bingham, the famous actress manager, now starring in her new play, "The Little Room."

"I think it is of more immediate importance even than the National School of Dramatic Art—almost as important, if not quite, as the National theater. You can have no idea how many girls otherwise gifted for a stage career come to the theater with absolutely no conception of correct English. The very thing which should be the first considered with this array of applicants for dramatic fame seems to be the last. Girls with all sorts of smooth accents, and with the oddest and most provoking variety of affectations, apply to positions for which they are well equipped, save in that essential.

There are hundreds of so-called dramatic schools and elocution factories, pretending to fit men and women for the stage, but from a hundred graduates that might qualify, the large percentage would fail for lack of good English." Miss Bingham comes to the Auditorium Monday night, January 7.

THE CLAY BAKER.

William W. Mong, in "The Clay Baker," delighted two large audiences at the Auditorium at both the matinee and night performances yesterday, this being his fourth appearance in Newark. The production is familiar to most Newark people, but the cast which supported Mr. Mong on this visit is far superior to that of last year's production. As usual Mr. Mong portrayed the character of the old potter who has been working for years on the secret of making an unbreakable china. He is without doubt the best character actor seen in Newark for some time.

THE ORPHAN.

One of the cleverest bills of the season is that at the Orphan this week. The musical act of Short and Skoury is certainly a rich treat. "Shorty" is a Lilliputian, a good comedian, singer and dancer. He is one of the smallest men on the stage. Arthur Browning, "shoe artist," won the heartiest applause because of his excellent dancing grotesque. James and Cecelia Welsh are exceedingly funny in their comedy sketch and brought much applause. Other features of the program are The Hippodrome overture, the illustrated song, Is There Any Room in Heaven for a Little Girl Like Me, and the feature film The Automobile Thieves.

WITHOUT FUNDS.

London, Jan. 2.—In a dispatch from Teheran the correspondent of the Daily Mail says that the negotiations for the promotion of a national bank have been thus far unsuccessful, and in the meanwhile the biggest bankers and merchants are absolutely without funds owing to the stoppage of credit by the two European banks.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous to the human body. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney trouble. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidneys become diseased and the blood is poisoned. It is a deadly disease and the kidneys themselves break down and waste away, day by day.

Swamp-Root is the only remedy that cures the kidneys, and a cure is obtained at once by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make a mistake by taking Dr. Kupper's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It cures inability to hold urine and standing pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up during the night, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It reveals the highest form of scientific cure of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new cure for kidney, liver and bladder trouble, and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail, Address Dr. Kupper & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root. Dr. Kupper's Swamp-Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

DAY'S BUSINESS IN COURT HOUSE

NEWARK SALOONKEEPER BEGINS SUIT HERE ATTACKING ARIKIN LAW.

Cloud on Title—Mrs. Charles Wire Asks for Divorce—Ready Transfers—Court Notes.

A petition has been filed in the Court of Common Pleas by Samuel Heller, a saloonkeeper doing business in the West End, vs. C. L. V. Holtz, treasurer, and J. N. Wright, auditor. Plaintiff says that the legislature passed an act providing that upon the business of trafficking in spirituous or other liquors there shall be assessed and paid into the treasury the sum of $1,000 yearly. Plaintiff says that the act was not presented to the governor of the state, nor signed, nor returned by him to the house wherein it originated, as is required by law; that by reason thereof the act did not become a valid law, and any collections of said tax thereunder are invalid and unlawful. Plaintiff says that he was required to pay on the 20th of December, the sum of $500, or quit business in which he was engaged; that he paid the same under protest.

He says that the law is invalid and of no effect. Plaintiff asks that the auditor and treasurer be enjoined from disposing of any of the money, and that at the final hearing of this action that the amount be returned to him. A temporary restraining order was issued.

Frank C. King vs. A. W. Claggett, leave given to file petition. Randolph; Norpell & Norpell.

John A. Chilcote vs. Frances C. Grable, an action in partition. Appraisement reported made: confirmed. Stasel; Fulton & Fulton, Kibler & Montgomery.

Court adjourned to Saturday next when an adjournment of the September term, sine die, will be ordered.

Real Estate Transfers. Mary Hickey and others to Charles E. Davidson, lot 466 in the Hickey addition in Utica, $200.

Christine Chapin Barnhart and husband to Ellis Chapin, real estate in Hopewell township, $300.

To Remove Cloud.

Blanche McCollum and others have commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against Nathaniel H. Williams and 15 others. They say that on March 24, 1869, George A. Wilson conveyed to Nathaniel B. Hogg as executor of the will of John H. Wilson, 80 acres of land in Madison township; that the lands were conveyed to Nathaniel H. Wilson and John F. Wilson during their natural lives, and at their decease to and for the benefit of their children, if any there should be, and if either should die without issue, then to the use and benefit of the survivor of them for his life. At the decease of the survivor the property to be used for the benefit of the child or children, and if both Nathaniel H. and John F. Wilson should die without issue, then on the death of the survivor for the sole use and benefit of George A. Wilson, his heirs and assigns forever. Plaintiffs say that John F. Wilson died in 1900 leaving a number of children as heirs at law; that Nathaniel H. Wilson is still living, and has eight children living.

Plaintiffs say that there is a cloud upon the title, which they asked be removed, and that the widow of Nathaniel B. Hogg and his heirs at law, nephews and nieces, be required to convey to them the legal title of the undivided one-half of said premises or to the part set off and partitioned to plaintiffs within a day to be fixed by the court, and if they fail to do so that such decree may be entered in the case as will be equivalent to the conveyance of the widow and heirs at law of Nathaniel B. Hogg to the plaintiffs for the premises, and that partition of the premises be made and the interest of the plaintiffs be set off to them jointly in severalty or if that cannot be done without manifest injury to the premises; that such other proceedings be had as are authorized by law. Norpell & Norpell, attorneys for plaintiffs.

Suit for Divorce. Pearl Wire by her attorneys, Smith & Smythe, has commenced a suit in the Probate court for divorce from her husband, Charles R. Wire. The parties were married May 21, 1892, and no children were born of the marriage. For cause of action plaintiff charges her husband with desertion and failure to provide. She asks for divorce and restitution to her maiden name of Pearl Merrick.

Answer and Cross Petition. In the case of John A. Chilcote vs. Frances C. Grable and others, A. A. Stasel receiver of the Newark Savings Bank company, has filed his answer and cross petition.

ROLAND LODGE INSTALLATION

The announcement that the officers-elect of Roland Lodge, No. 305, Knights of Pythias of this city, would be publicly installed on Tuesday night, had the effect of bringing out a large number of the members of the Pythian lodges of the city, together with their families and friends.

The officers were installed by J. B. Courtney, Lodge Deputy Grand Commander, assisted by S. H. Beadle, County Deputy Grand Commander; Henry Pfeffer, G. M. A.; C. J. Graef, Grand Prelate and L. N. Bradley, G. K. R. S.

The officers installed were as follows:

P. C.—J. I. Smith.
C. C.—J. M. Ankele.
V. C.—T. C. Hawkins.
Prelate—James Crisswell.
K. R. S.—J. B. Courtney.
M. at A.—H. L. Rexroth.
I. G.—C. L. Vanatta.

The ceremonies were interspersed with illustrated songs and addresses, including a short talk by Dr. Palmer and a solo by Dr. Lichtig, accompanied by Mrs. Angus Smith.

The splendid music for the occasion was furnished by Miss Smalles, pianist. Fred Ankele, pianist, G. F. Smalles, Eugene Wollinsky and J. W. Weakley, violinists.

Dancing and card playing followed the installation of officers and refreshments were served during the evening.

THOUSANDS DRIVEN FROM HOMES BY FIRE IN NEW YORK

New York, Jan. 2.—Thousands of tenement dwellers were driven from their homes early today and two whole blocks were menaced by one of the fiercest blazes of the winter, while the firemen stood looking on helplessly to fight the flames because of the lack of water. The water in the boilers of the fire engine ran low and the crews were forced to draw the fires from under them to prevent explosions. While the fire was burning fiercest and the streets were packed with scantily clad people scores of horses loosed from the stable in which it is believed the flames started, stampeded in the street and threw the crowds into a frenzy. To add to the confusion, negro robbers rushed into the burning buildings and looted the tenements deserted by the panic stricken occupants. The crowd in the street raised a cry and for a time a race war was threatened. The police searched the burning and nearby tenements. Six negroes laden with loot were encountered and a desperate fight was waged in the smoke filled hallways which ended in the rout of the thieves, and their disappearance in the crowd.

A few minutes later a negro snatched a bag of trinkets from a woman and then knocked her down. She screamed and the crowd started in pursuit of the negro and a dozen shots were fired at the man before the police captured him.

When a report of the outrages spread through the throngs in the vicinity of the fire a dozen inoffensive colored persons were badly beaten.

The fire at first was of little consequence, but the lack of water allowed it to spread to adjoining tenements and the police and firemen were kept busy rescuing people from the latter. The fire started in a livery stable at 429 West 53d street. This building was totally destroyed, and the two adjoining tenements were gutted. The loss is estimated at $100,000.
